

A BRIEF STOP ON THE ROAD FROM AUSCHWITZ

a talk by GÖRAN ROSENBERG

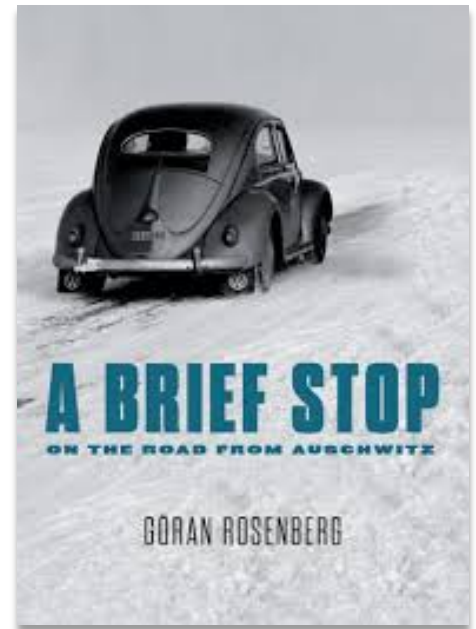

April 27, 2015,
4:30-5:30 pm
Geballe Room,
Stephens Hall

A reading by Swedish author and journalist Göran Rosenberg, from his recently translated memoir about his father's life in Sweden after surviving Auschwitz.

Göran Rosenberg is one of Sweden's most eminent writers and journalists.

"I can't think of a second generation work that is equal to A Brief Stop on the Road from Auschwitz...It is a towering and wondrous work about memory and experience, exquisitely crafted, beautifully written, humane, generous, devastating, yet somehow also hopeful."
– Philippe Sands, The Financial Times

The book is available for purchase in advance of the talk at University Press Books, 2430 Bancroft Way at Dana St.

Sponsored by the Department of Scandinavian, the Judah L. Magnes Collection of Jewish Art and Life, the Center for Jewish Studies at UC Berkeley, and Barbro Osher, Swedish Consul General of San Francisco.

Please contact issa@berkeley.edu or 510-642-4484 with questions.