

2025-26 Diller Family Graduate Student Fellowship

The Center for Jewish Studies is offering a competitive fellowship to graduate students enrolled in the DE program or to graduate students who demonstrate a serious interest in Jewish Studies and are working on a paper or project on a related topic. Support from a faculty member is required.

Application requirements. This form must be accompanied by the following:

- A statement about your plan of study and/or research in 2025-26
- A detailed budget of the amount of funds you are requesting (such as travel costs, lodging, books, materials, other). Awards may be up to $5000 based on demonstrated need.
- Contact information for a faculty member who supports your application:
Professor Name: _____
Professor Email: _____

Student name and SID: _____

Email: _____

Home department: _____

Awards from CJS may be combined with other funding, but the amount may be adjusted. Please list other academic-year and summer funding (UC or external) for which you are applying or have received. Please list the amount(s) of any funds received.

Signature of applicant. _____ Date _____

Please submit this form and your application as one pdf to eheber@berkeley.edu and jewishstudies@berkeley.edu by Friday, February 20, 2026 @ 5:00 pm PT