

2026 SUMMER FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

The Center for Jewish Studies offers summer grants to graduate and undergraduate students working in the field of Jewish Studies. Funding amounts vary and will be determined by the committee, based upon the strength of the proposed project in relation to the entire applicant pool. Grants to students are awarded in support of defined summer projects/activities, instruction, travel, research, and language training, undertaken for academic goals toward degree, not to offset normal summer living expenses.

Please submit as one PDF:

- A succinct statement (~ 500 words) that clearly articulates your project/activity.
- A detailed budget is required.
- A written report on program/activity (maximum ~500 words) must be submitted by recipients of these grants no later than December 31, 2026. Failure to do so will negatively impact consideration for future awards.
