

The Herman P. and Sophia Taubman Chair in Jewish Studies and The Magnes Collection of Jewish Art and Life present

THE 2017 TAUBMAN LECTURES

David Biale

ON JEWISH HERESY

LECTURE 1

Monday, March 13, 7 pm

Rabbinizing Heresy: Korah in the Midrash

LECTURE 2

Wednesday, March 15, 7 pm

The Afterlives of Baruch Spinoza and Shabbatai Zvi

LECTURE 3

Thursday, March 16, 5:30 pm

Gershom Scholem, Hannah Arendt and the Boundaries of Modern Heresy

Followed by Reception featuring heretical-looking (but totally kosher) nibbles

At The Magnes Collection of Jewish Art and Life, 2121 Allston Way, Berkeley

David Biale is the Emanuel Ringelblum Distinguished Professor of Jewish History at UC Davis and the author of the forthcoming Hasidism: A New History and a biography of Gershom Scholem. Recent books include: The Norton Anthology of World Religions: Judaism; Not in the Heavens: The Tradition of Jewish Secular Thought; Blood and Belief: The Circulation of a Symbol Between Jews and Christians; and Cultures of the Jews: A New History.

Cosponsors: The Center for Jewish Studies, GTU; Lehrhaus Judaica; Jewish Studies Program, UC Davis; Taube Center for Jewish Studies, Stanford University

FREE and open to the public.

RSVP: <https://goo.gl/forms/DWohE1Hvf8E6PkkL2> to secure your seat.