

The Herman P. and Sophia Taubman Lectures in Jewish Studies

The Early Modern Jewish Community: A Secret History

A Series of Three Lectures

Presented by

Elisheva Carlebach

Salo W. Baron Professor of Jewish History,
Culture, and Society

Columbia University

Location:

Toll Room
Alumni House

Time:

6:00PM

March 1
The Sexton's Tale: Secret Records*

March 8
Jewish Letters: Love and Longing

March 15
Jewish Ritual: An Untold Story

All lectures will be held at Alumni House, Berkeley Campus

* The first lecture will be followed by a reception

Sponsored by the Taubman Chair of Talmudic Culture, University of California, Berkeley and the Jewish Studies Committee of the University of California, Berkeley